May 2015 Beeline

If you're still shopping for an appropriate Mother's Day gift, consider that she might like to be pampered with some of our unique, natural body care products. Or perhaps you should treat yourself to something special! Our honey body creams will leave skin soft and supple. If a leisurely soak in the tub is in order the honey bodywash and tub truffles are perfect. To invigorate the senses try our soaps with their delicate honey and fruit fragrances. All of our body care products are made with natural ingredients and of course honey, which has healing properties and helps the skin stay nourished.
